

The Pawhuska Chamber of Commerce presents, "Food for Thought," an energetic lunch and learn series designed to provide meaningful networking and professional development.

May 21, 2015

10 Rules for Handling the Conflict in Life

"I love mankind - it's people I can't stand." Charlie Brown, in Charles Schulz' timeless comic strip, "Peanuts"

Charlie Brown had a point: relationships with other human beings are wonderful – in theory. In reality, they can be difficult and messy. Nothing determines our success in life as much as our ability to work with other people. Nothing is messier in relationships than dealing with conflict. For us, there are both constructive and destructive ways to approach it.

Join Tonya Foreman and Tara Gotwalt for an upbeat hour of learning helpful ways to handle the conflict in life.

Please RSVP to Cindy Helmer @ cindy.helmer@tricountytech.edu or 918-287-3357. Save your spot for May 21, 2015 from 11:30am to 1:00 pm.

Special thanks for Lunch, provided by:

 AMERICAN HERITAGE BANK